THE VAN DUSEN NURSERIES W. L. McKAY, Prop., Geneva, N. Y.

DON'T FORGET THIS LITTLE CHAP AND HIS DWARF APPLES! He has 120 different varieties of Dwarf Fruit Trees to sell you—you need them all! For DWARF FRUIT TREES, see our large catalogue. : : : : : :

TREE ROSES

There is no more beautiful plant than a rose in bloom, and when the plant happens to be a tree rose, four or five feet tall and loaded with blossoms, it is doubly beautiful. We offer three varieties, probably as choice representatives of the three colors they represent, as any three roses we could select.

For the white variety we have the Frau Karl Druschki or "Snow Queen." I would place the blooms of this variety at the very head of all white roses for beauty; they are extremely large, but their slight tendency to be less double than most varieties relieves the bloom from anything like coarseness. A most beautiful bud; when fully opened is nearly as large as a Camelia, which it somewhat resembles. Blooms at intervals all summer.

For a red variety we have chosen the Gruss an Teplitz, which we consider perhaps the best adapted of all for lawn decoration, as the Teplitz blooms literally from June till late fall. It has a most wonderful color—call it red if you please, but better still, call it "Gruss an Teplitz" color; for there is no other color like it and it baffles all attempts at description. It has long, pointed buds like the Frau Karl, but not so large.

For a pink variety we offer Mrs. John Laing which we regard as one of the best of this color. It is a free bloomer, continuing through the summer.

Prices, $1.00 each, $9.00 per dozen. One of each of above three kinds, $2.25.

Should we sell out of any of these varieties, we will send the nearest in color possible unless you indicate otherwise.

TREE ROSE

DOLLAR BUNDLES

All sales cash with order

In every block of mature apple and pear trees there are the four grades of first-class trees as shown in the accompanying cut—"A" which is the cream of the block, is the grade that constitutes our "Extra" size trees listed in our catalogue. If you are planting only a few trees of different varieties, this is the grade that will give you the best satisfaction—you want a good, big handsome tree, and here you get it. For this reason it is only in this grade of trees that we list them at single rates.

This leaves the sizes marked "B," "C" and "D." While the extra size takes the majority of a good block, there are too many in these perfectly good smaller sizes to throw away. Therefore, they go into our "Dollar Bulletin" and are offered in the different sizes as listed on pages 3 and 4, by the bundle.

This enables us to maintain the very highest grading for our "Extra" size and at the same time provides an outlet for these smaller sizes at prices which enables the orchard planter to buy trees at half price or less, which, planted in orchard, will serve his purpose and make very little difference in the time of coming into bearing. Not that we advise these in preference to the "Extras" for orchard planting—there is no better stock than our extra size for any purpose, but for the man who wants to plant say a thousand trees and can only afford to buy 500 of the extra size this year, it will pay him instead to buy the thousand of the lighter grade at the cost of the 500 extras and have them all started together.

So this year we are putting our trees up in "dollar" bundles, which are offered under the following conditions:

- (1) All sales from this Bulletin are under the same guaranty and provisions for substituting as stated on the inside of the front cover of our large catalogue which has been sent you. Be sure, therefore, to state whether, if out of either the size or the variety you order, you wish us to substitute either in size or variety. If you wish no change whatever in your order and we cannot fill it as specified, your money will be returned. I would suggest first a substitution of sizes of the same variety, and then, if entirely out of that variety, a change to some other as near like it as possible.
- (2) At these prices, bundles will not be broken—please do not ask it as it will only cause delay, and, if insisted on, the return of your money; except that if your order is for one hundred trees of one kind of fruit, we will then divide your order as desired.
- (3) Orders will be filled only when accompanied by the cash—either money order, draft, or your own personal check.

STANDARD APPLE TREES

Grade "B," 4-5 feet, $1.00 per bundle of 10 trees

Many of these trees might well go into Grade "A," except that the "A" trees must be kept to a grade beyond criticism, and the very best that money will buy in any market. These Grade "B" trees are a great bargain for the orchard planter at the price offered.

TWO SMALL FRUIT COLLECTIONS

"JUNIOR" AND "SENIOR"

Our orders this spring are running mostly to trees—we are offering these two collections as an inducement for our customers to acquire the small fruit habit, and incidentally, we add a dwarf tree or two—just enough to give you a taste for them! Pinch them back as directed on page 7 of the catalogue, and make them give you fruit in 1916.

In ordering these collections, do not list them on the order—just say "Junior Collection"

or "Senior Collection."

SHADE TREE COLLECTION, 50c. POST PAID

Shade trees cost more than any other class of nursery stock, owing to their size and the larger expense of packing and transportation.

Here are some little fellows, however, for almost nothing. They are about a foot in height, some probably running close to two feet.

1 Russian Mulberry

1 Norway Maple 1 Black Walnut

1 Catalpa Speciosa

1 European White Birch

These little trees, in from one to three years, according to variety, will grow to a size which would cost you about $5.00, including expressage. They are listed in order of the rapidity of their growth.

5 CAROLINA POPLAR, 2-3 ft., only 50c, POST PAID The same trees, not less than 50, $5.00 per 100 by express

6 BEST FLOWERING SHRUBS FOR 50c. Post Paid

These are a great bargain. They will be full grown shrubs the size we usually ship in a year or two. About 6 to 12 inches. They will be selected from such shrubs as Barberries, Forsythias, Honeysuckles, Fringes, Lilacs, Spireas, Syringas, Weigelas, etc., entirely our selection of varieties.

The JAPANESE BARBERRY is without doubt the most valuable ornamental shrub that has ever been introduced. There is no other so perfectly adapted to the three great uses of shrubs in landscape architecture—for massing, for hedging, and for individual, specimen plants. It seems to me to stand first of all shrubs for each of these three purposes.

If the residences on an entire street used no other shrub than this one, it would not impress one as monotonous or unusual—the lack of other shrubs would hardly be noticed; what other shrub is there that could stand such a test?

Having no conspicuous bloom, there is perhaps no particular time when it is at its best—it is always at its best! It is distinctly a shrub of the seasons—a different shrub for each season; the new spring foliage is a light, almost grayish green, changing to a strong, dark, glossy green for its summer foliage; with the coming of fall it again changes to all the different shades and combinations of reds, yellows and greens imaginable, and during winter it remains a mass of bright red berries.

In the engraving the Barberry is shown in the circling hedge at the left.

The Japanese Barberry is included in our above offer of six shrubs by mail. Strong plants about 2 feet high, 25c. For hedging, in lots of 50 plants or over, $15.00 per 100.

JAPANESE BARBERRY HEDGE.

You Guessed Just Right! It's an Auction !!

In digging trees for our spring sales, we have to "guess" at the number of each variety likely to be wanted. If we make a close guess, we dignify it by calling it an "estimate," but all the same, in plain English, its just "guessing.'

There are many kinds of which we are short and shall have to dig still more, but from sales to date it would seem that we are long on varieties listed below, and to about the number stated—which is also "guessing" some more! At any rate the number of each variety entered below will be sold to the highest bidders, till they are all sold.

When the number offered of each variety is sold all further bids will be declined. (1)

No bids will be accepted for a greater number than listed.

No cash need accompany bids, but the amount bid becomes due immediately on receipt of notice of the acceptance of a bid.

(4) If at any time the number still unsold is taken by two or more bids, the first one received will have prior right of acceptance. If two or more such bids are received in the same day, the first one opened will be entitled to acceptance.

No bids will be considered on less than 20 trees of a variety, except, that if a bid is made for 100 trees or more, for one kind of fruit, as for example apples, the bidder may select his 100 apple trees in such numbers of each as he desires, but only from the 9 kinds here offered. If his bid is for 100 pears, he may bid 90 Bartlett, 5 Seckel and 5 Kieffer; no bid, however, will be considered such as, for example, 15 Baldwin, 15 Spy, 15 Greening, 15 Bartlett, 15 German Prune, 15 Montmorency and 10 Elberta, whereas the same kind of a bid for 20 of each variety would be accepted.

The trees offered below are not the same grades as those offered by the bundle, but are the extra size standard trees offered in our catalogue—the highest grade, and every tree selected with the greatest care.

(7) We would suggest that you use the order blank in making your bids, and if not accepted we will return same to you.

The closest estimate we can make at this date warrants us in offering only the following list; it may be that later, in our April Bulletin, we will find we have other varieties that we may be able to offer, or possibly more of some of these same varieties.
